Superintendent Beasley Speaks with WABE 90.1's Martha Dalton About Future of Clayton County Public Schools

Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) Superintendent, Dr. Morcease J. Beasley, recently interviewed with WABE 90.1 FM Radio's Martha Dalton about his expectations and goals in his first term as Superintendent of the fifth largest school district in the State of Georgia.

Aired earlier today as part of the station's Morning Edition segment, Superintendent Beasley spoke during the interview about his initial assessment of the school district as well as leading indicators of success such as discipline, attendance, teacher retention, employee morale and his long term commitment to CCPS and the Clayton County community.

We are excited to share with all stakeholders both broadcasts and extended versions of the Superintendent's "Clayton Schools Superintendent: We Have Right Ingredients for Success" interview with Martha Dalton!
