Ten CCPS High Schools Named 2023 Advanced Placement Honor Schools

JONESBORO - Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) is proud to share that ten Clayton County high schools were named 2023 Advanced Placement Honor Schools! As announced on Thursday, February 16, 2023, by State Superintendent Richard Woods, the 2023 AP Honor Schools are named in eight categories based on the results of 2022 AP courses and exams.

Elite Scholars Academy and Forest Park High School were included in three categories. Charles R. Drew, Lovejoy and Mundy's Mill high schools were named in two categories. Earning a place in one category were M.E. Stilwell School of the Arts, Morrow, Mount Zion, North Clayton, and Riverdale high schools.

"We join with the State Superintendent Woods in expressing our pride in our students and our teachers," said Dr. Anthony Smith, CCPS Interim Superintendent. "Everyone at these high schools, from the students and teachers to support staff leadership, and community have been committed to the implementation of our Advanced Placement initiative, which remains a critical element to our commitment to higher expectations for our students and staff."

About Advanced Placement

AP exams are administered by the College Board, which also administers the SAT. AP courses are one of several ways Georgia students can access college-level learning at the high-school level; students who receive a 3, 4, or 5 on an AP exam may receive college credit. The district's 2023 AP Honor Schools are listed in five of eight categories. Their inclusion is based on the results of 2022 AP courses and exams.
