CCPS to Observe the Final ELBC Day for 2022-2023 on Friday, March 10, 2023

JONESBORO – Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) will observe the final Extending Learning Beyond the Classroom (ELBC) Day of the 2022-2023 School Year on Friday, March 10, 2023. All students in grades PreK-12 will remain home for asynchronous (independent) learning. All district staff will report to their respective locations on Friday, March 10, 2023, to engage in professional learning to enhance and improve classroom practices.

For a full listing of ELBC Days as well as district closures/holidays, please visit the 2022-2023 School Year Calendar via the following link: https://www.clayton.k12.ga.us/calendar/school_year_calendars.

Things to Know For ELBC Days:

Students will access their assignments from their teachers and work independently at home. Students may need the following resources - in most cases - to access their learning:

- Computer Device
- Reliable Internet
- Access to Canvas Learning Management System
- Access to digital textbooks and/or online learning platforms

How will students be counted as present for the ELBC day?

All students will be counted as present. Students will be expected to adhere to their teacher's procedures for completing and submitting assignments.

How will students receive their meals for ELBC day?

The school district will provide breakfast and lunch meals to all CCPS students on each of the five ELBC Days. Students will pick up their breakfast and lunch meals at school on Thursday before the scheduled ELBC Day.

Students and their families have access to a free 24/7 tutoring service

Clayton County Public Schools is making available to the district's K-12 students and their families a free tutoring service – Tutor.com. Sessions occur in a secure online classroom, providing one-on-one help in math, science, history/social studies, English, and much more! Please click on the following link to learn more:
