Mt. Zion Primary AP Participates in Leadership Program

JONESBORO - Earlier in June, Ms. Tonya Pugh, Assistant Principal at Mt. Zion Primary School, represented Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) by participating at the Governor's School Leadership Academy (GSLA). The Academy's Leadership Summit Lead Now: Spotlighting Advocacy and Agency in Georgia allowed Ms. Pugh an opportunity to showcase her leadership expertise with fellow leaders from around the state of Georgia.

As part of her participation, she served as a panelist speaking on "Leading With Purpose: Examining School Leaders' Agency Through Experiences." The session focused on the powerful role of agency and educational leadership, and how school leaders harnessed the agency to drive meaningful change and inspire others.

CCPS commends Ms. Pugh on her participation in the special discussion and congratulates her successful completion of the GSLA's Aspiring Principal Support Program.
