CLAYTON COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS

DR. MORCEASE J. BEASLEY

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

COMMITTED TO
HIGH PERFORMANCE

Dr. Morcease J. Beasley was unanimously voted to serve as Superintendent of Schools by the Clayton County Public School (CCPS) Board of Education on May 8, 2017.

With a theme of being "Committed to High Performance," Superintendent Beasley is dedicated to propelling Clayton County Public Schools toward being one of the highest achieving school districts in the State of Georgia and the nation.

By collaborating with all stakeholders to determine what is best for the students of CCPS, Superintendent Beasley looks forward to creating a culture of open dialogue and mutual support as we work together to strengthen community ties and empower the future leaders of tomorrow.

Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) is a public school district with administrative offices in Jonesboro, Georgia. Clayton County is positioned approximately fifteen minutes south of Downtown Atlanta and is home to one of the largest and busiest airports in the world, Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport. CCPS has over 54,000 students and over 7,000 personnel. It is the fifth largest school district in Georgia and is ranked among the 100 largest school systems in the United States. The district is fully accredited through AdvancED-Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Council on Accreditation and School Improvement (SACS CASI). CCPS offers a variety of learning options such as traditional schools, fine arts magnet schools and/or programs, Career, Technical, and Agricultural Education (CTAE) Pathways, online courses, and Gifted Education programs. The school district is highly diversified with 90 different ethnicities and countries represented. Seventy-two (72) different languages are spoken, with the largest two foreign languages being Spanish and Vietnamese. As of the 2016-2017 school year, over 12,000 students spoke a language other than English and over 6,000 were counted as English Language Learners.
