CCPS Cancels All Activities through Sunday, December 10

As Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) continues to monitor local weather forecasts and conditions, please consider this advisory as another update concerning the district operating hours and scheduled activities.

Due to the winter weather conditions and anticipated aftermath, Clayton County Public Schools is canceling all activities through Sunday, December 10. This includes all sport events and activities scheduled at the Performing Arts Center as well as the Clayton County at the High Museum activity. This action means that student performances scheduled for the High Museum on Sunday afternoon and the shuttle bus schedule established for the High Museum have been canceled.

We will continue to keep you informed as to any updated information. We will also monitor the weather and road conditions and provide updates by Sunday evening should any changes occur in our school system operating hours for Monday, December 11.

We encourage all stakeholders to continue to monitor district communications platforms for additional updates and other weather announcements as well as the official weather reporting stations of Clayton County Public Schools – WSB-TV (Channel 2 News), 95.5 and 750 AM Radio.
