Empowering Parents to Get Engaged and Stay Involved!

Title I Parent Academy

THE TITLE I PARENT ACADEMY:

- Offers parents and guardians of children attending schools in Clayton County opportunities to obtain information on a wide variety of subjects.
- Provides an interactive atmosphere where you can meet other parents, share your experiences, explore the wonders of technology, and answer questions that are critical for your child's development and your role as a parent.

Why participate in the Title I Parent Academy?

Learn meaningful ways to connect with your child's school. Learn about attendance policies and homework collaboration tips. Share the joy of reading with your child; strengthen their math skills, love of science and social studies.

Lower the stress that many parents and children experience about standardized testing as you begin to understand more about the tests that your children will take. Learn what you can do to help your child transition to higher academic levels and effectively plan for their college and career.

THE PARENT ACADEMY COURSES ARE ALIGNED TO EPSTEIN'S FIVE TYPES OF PARENT INVOLVEMENT:

- Parenting: Helping parents establish home environments to support learning.
- Communicating: Fostering effective communication that impacts the school community.
- Volunteering: Recruiting or organizing volunteers, or supporting school activities, both internal and external.
- Learning at Home: Organizing and coordinating learning activities that reinforce homework or classroom skills.
- Decision-making: Participating on decision-making committees, or in programs that advocate system or policy changes, or serving as a representative for the school or education community.
