ONEClayton Community Resource Guide Launched Leadership Clayton Project offers resources for county residents

Riverdale, GA – April 20, 2018, ONEClayton Community Resource Guide (OCCRG) is an easily accessible comprehensive listing of programs and services available to the Clayton County community. This new website connects residents to resources, programs, and services that are focused on supporting a healthy, successful life.

The website offers nearly 200 resources for Clayton resident's in the areas of:

- Career and Employment
- Child Welfare
- Crisis Intervention and Safety
- Education
- Eldercare
- Food and Clothing
- Healthcare
  - Health Insurance
- Housing
- Veterans

The website resource guide is available at <https://oneclayton.wixsite.com/oneclaytonresources>. In addition, the site can be downloaded to mobile devices through Google Play at <https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.y3c9decb7231> and the Apple Store at <https://itunes.apple.com/us/app/oneclayton/id1359718283?ls=1&mt=8>. The website is continually updated with vetted resources to offer the most current listing possible.

In addition to being a resource that individuals can access directly, OCCRG serves as a resource for such organizations as Department of Family and Children Services (DFACS), community leaders, police, EMS, community program managers, and the like. Presentations of the website and app have been made to the Clayton County Commissioners and the Association of Christian Ministers of Clayton County to spread the word to as many of Clayton County residents as possible.

As an effort to continually provide the citizens of Clayton County with a one-stop location for services they may need, a survey to help increase the list of resources available. The survey can be completed at https://clayton.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV\_4MaEIKYiKksEB6t.

The site was developed as a team project by 2018 Leadership Clayton Class members: Eric Bell; Faye Evans; Kimberly Golden-Benner; Judy Mapp; Michael Montgomery; Dr. Chantara Rumph-Carter; and Judge Marcus Thorpe. A collaborative community effort, the website was created with support and guidance from Clayton County Chamber of Commerce; Clayton County Library System; John Brinson, Clayton Collaborative Authority; and State Representative Rhonda Burnough, the team's lead adviser.

Anyone with suggestions for resources or questions can email ONEClayton@mail.com.
