

Today is Read for the Record. We are super excited to share a wonderful story about friendship and keeping promises with all of our CCPS scholars. During our special storytime, we will discover the book Evelyn Del Rey is Moving Away. This book was written by Newberry Medalist Meg Medina and illustrated by Sonja Sanchez. Make sure to tune in to discover new vocabulary words, create a mood meter (a document to track your feelings during the story), and learn the benefits of letter writing to stay connected with family and friends during times of separation and change. Even if you are in the dark right now, this story is sure to brighten your day! Check it out now, Evelyn Del Rey is Moving Away. Go to <https://tinyurl.com/RFTRCCPS2020> to watch the story.

Don't forget to pledge that you read at
