CCPS COVID-19 Vaccine Public Health Education Initiative

JONESBORO – Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) is committed to helping our community to stay informed regarding COVID-19. As vaccine availability begins to expand and more community members will have the opportunity to get vaccinated, it is important that students and parents have access to information to support making informed decisions.

Clayton County Public Schools has partnered with local and state healthcare providers to support a comprehensive community awareness and information campaign that engages our students and parents. Beginning March 1, 2021 through April 30, 2021, students and parents of Clayton County Public Schools will have the opportunity to participate in various activities (i.e. Jeopardy Game of Facts, Don't Miss Your Shot to Stop COVID-19 Citizen Science Project, Public Service Announcement TikTok Challenge, Be Inspired with Beasley Podcast Series) designed to focus on learning more about the COVID-19 virus and vaccine. To access these activities and more, please visit <https://www.clayton.k12.ga.us>.
