CCPS Stadiums will Operate at 50% Capacity for the 2021 Football Season

Decision includes Southern Crescent, Tara and Twelve Oaks Stadiums

JONESBORO - During these unprecedented times and with the continued rise of Coronavirus (COVID-19) variants, Clayton County Public Schools' (CCPS) Department of Athletics is strongly emphasizing that the health and the safety of our students and their families, our employees and all community stakeholders are our first priority.

As such, CCPS will operate the district's three stadiums at 50 percent capacity during the 2021 football season which begins on Friday, August 20, 2021. All fans are encouraged to wear masks and social distance. All ticketing will be digital through the GoFan platform. Tickets will be available for purchase weekly beginning on each Tuesday at 4:00 PM via the following link: <https://gofan.co/app/school/GA8227>. Fans are encouraged to purchase tickets prior to arriving at the stadium.

Facilities affected are Southern Crescent Stadium in Riverdale, Tara Stadium in Jonesboro, and Twelve Oaks Stadium in Hampton.
