First Extended Learning Beyond the Classroom Day is Friday, August 27

JONESBORO- Clayton County Public Schools is excited to announce that this Friday, August 27, 2021 is the first Extended Learning Beyond the Classroom (ELBC) Day for 2021-2022. All students in grades PreK-12 will remain home for asynchronous (independent) learning, while staff report to work for in-person training, lesson planning, and/or data analysis.

Important: This is a learning day. Students will access their assignments from their teachers and work independently at home. Students may need the following resources - in most cases - to access their learning:

- Computer Device
- Reliable Internet
- Access to Canvas Learning Management System (or)
- Access to Google Classroom
- Access to digital textbooks and/or online learning platforms

How will students be counted present for the ELBC day?

All students will be counted present. Students will be expected to adhere to their teacher's procedures for completing and submitting assignments.

How and when will in-person instruction students receive their meals?

All students will collect their breakfast and lunch meals for Friday's ELBC Day on Thursday at school.

How will virtual learning students receive their meals?

All virtual learning students will receive their breakfast and lunch meals for Friday's ELBC Day when they pick up their meals on Thursday at school.
