CCPS' Superintendent/CEO Dr. Morcease J. Beasley Earns High Honor

JONESBORO - Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) is excited to announce that Dr. Morcease J. Beasley, CCPS Superintendent/CEO of Schools has been named the recipient of the 2021 Cognia Values Driven Award.

The award is being presented by the accreditation/certification agency in recognition of Dr. Beasley's work in elevating instructional opportunities for all students throughout the school district. It is also being presented for his commitment and dedication to “create worlds of opportunity on behalf of the district's students & making a difference in the quality of the communities served by Clayton County Public Schools.”

“I am humbled by this honor and accept this award on behalf of the collective effort of our Clayton County Board of Education, our more than 7,000 employees, our students and their families and our communities that we serve,” Dr. Beasley said. “They are all essential to the work being done and the successes being achieved by our district as we continue to address our challenges and move to higher levels of performance.”

The award will be presented at Cognia's state conference held November 18-19, 2021 in Atlanta during the organization's Excellence in Education Luncheon.
