CCPS Superintendent/CEO of Schools to Participate in a Webinar

JONESBORO- Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) is pleased to announce that Dr. Morcease J. Beasley, Superintendent/CEO of Schools, will participate in a webinar focusing on empowering educators and keeping instruction meaningful during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Leading Education with Executive Function is a Know How (To Learn More) Webinar sponsored by ExQ®, LLC, will take place on Tuesday, January 11, 2022. The webinar will begin at 4 p.m. and is scheduled to last an hour.

During the program, Ms. Sucheta Kamath, Founder of ExQ®, teams with Dr. Beasley for an exclusive interview to learn how educators can make strategic shifts by focusing on self-awareness and self-reflection. They will also discuss Executive Function in general as a tool for educators that will assist them to empower teachers, staff, parents and students during these uncertain times.

Also, as part of the webinar, Dr. Beasley will be asked to share information about the district's remarkable efforts to strategically manage the disruption caused by the pandemic by implementing prudent health and safety precautions, bridging the digital divide by improving remote/hybrid learning experiences for students and activating meaningful support of students and faculty alike.
