Annual Pre-K Curriculum Fair Held at Lee Street Park on Saturday, August 12, 2023

JONESBORO - The Early Learning Department of Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) hosted its annual Pre-K Curriculum Fair on Saturday, August 12, at Lee Street Park in Jonesboro. The fair began at 11:00 a.m. and continued until 1:00 p.m.

Students and family members collectively engaged in a variety of activities that included hands-on curriculum stations, face painting and a bouncy house. Special guest attractions included our curriculum representatives from Frog Street, Spider Man and the official Spokespuppy, CALi, from the Department of Early Care and Learning who featured the event on their DECAL publications.

CCPS expresses its appreciation to the district's Pre-K teachers who served as ambassadors to present content and model learning for those families in attendance and extends special thanks to the Early Learning Department, under the leadership of Coordinator Ms. Viki Dennard, for its work in making the curriculum fair a reality. We encourage our parents to ensure their child is enrolled in Pre-K, as this creates the start for a successful future. As their motto states, "Early Learning is the Foundation" as we "Build a Better Tomorrow, Today!"
